ALSO LOOK WHAT MAYSVILLE'S GOTTA CARRY.

And we have civic burdens as well as personal ones to bear. We have big tasks ahead of us to accomplish this 1915, and it will take the exercise of much patience, and generosity, and good will and broadmindedness to do them well. We have our school house to build; our library for which the women worked is to be made; the township hall we voted is to be erected; our street repair work is to be completed; we have to run our electric light plant; to adapt ourselves again to "wet" conditions. And each and every one of these propositions has been bitterly opposed and fought and argued. And now there remains the doing of things, and in the doing, we must surely work with a single end in view.

The "drys" must lay aside their disappointment and join with the "wets" in supporting the hands of those who have the school and the library to build and the streets to repair; and the "wets" will show the "drys" that it is possible to run saloons that are not hot-beds of vice and political corruption. And Tom, Dick and Harry—the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker—who feel free to criticize the Mayor and Council on each and every point, should realize that that much maligned body has much to do and little to do with. Of all bodies they can well say: "Quit cher beller-in'. Look what I gotta carry. Look what we all gotta carry."—Jack Random, in Ripley Bee.

OPPOSITE STANDPOINTS.

Chicago has established the public dance and 9,000 people attended the first night. There was one feature of it thus alluded to by the Herald:

There were of all social sorts and conditions. Probably some of them from either end of the "social scale" were surprised to find that those at the other end were so very much like themselves. Which is an interesting and valuable discovery for all who make it.

This feature of the affair is interesting. It is not expected that classes in society will disappear, but it would be well if they thought more of one another and found that caste and wealth were poor standards of merit. When the lowly in life mix a great deal with the upper crust, they are apt to lose a great deal of their envy, especially if they have any excellence of their own to go on. How ever it may be questioned if a public dance is the place to look for a true alternative.—Ashland Independent.

HAD A REAL GRIEVANCE.

"Mr. Thomas L. Walker, who was one of the leading Bull Moose in the state, but since the late election is back in the G. O. P. for keeps, is suggested by the Lexington Leader as a possible candidate for Secretary of State on the Republican ticket. Well, we won't kick. If there are two men in the state who had real grievances and should be excused for a little irregularity, it is Thomas L. Walker of Lexington, and W. C. Balce of Guthrie, on account of the way they were treated in post-office matters. But the man who did it is not now in the lead in the Republican party, and both are back in the ranks."—Glasgow Republican.

"PSYCHOLOGICAL SALUTE."

The proposal to appropriate $554,000 to meet the expense which was incurred in sending troops to Vera Cruz caused an outbreak on the part of Minority Leader Mann. "The troops were sent to secure a salute that was never given," he said, "and now money is asked for that—half a million dollars for a psychological salute."

If you have any money to lose, bet it on General V. Carranza.

GREAT WASTE OF MONEY.

A battleship costs this nation $650,000 a year. Think of that—enough money to pay the expenses of 1,000 country schools for a year; and what else it may pay for that would benefit the people, any one can figure for himself. And then to think that that battleship cost $12,000,000 to build, and that it will last only about ten years, and so we have it, that one battleship practically wastes $1,650,000 every year, or $16,500,000 in the ten years while waiting around for some enemy to attack us, which has never appeared for a century and never will for centuries to come. Sometimes we think this grand old republic has gone crazy, throwing away its money in this shameful fashion.—Ohio State Journal.

THE HOBSON RESOLUTION.

The Hobson resolution has fallen 61 votes short of the necessary two-thirds in the House. It is dead, at least, for this session. That it will return to plague another session and that its advocates will seek to force it upon both parties in 1916 is now a certainty to be reckoned with. The fanaticism, joined to political opportunism, that has made a political issue of a moral question, that has increased drunkenness and broken down respect for law in practically every state in which it has gained ascendancy, is not going to stop short until the country itself determines whether democracy or paternalism in its worst form is to control in the government of the American people.—Louisville Times.

MORE THAN SIX THOUSAND FIRES.

The total number of fires during the season of 1914 which threatened the national forests, and which had to be handled by the protective organization of the Forest Service, were 6,112, or about 1,000 more than occurred in 1910. This number represents the fires reported up to December 1.

KNOWS RUMBLE OF PROSPERITY WAGON.

Hon. D. C. Edwards of London was in town. He says the lumber business is dull and he does not expect to ever see it at its best again until there is a Republican President and a Republican House and Senate doing business at the old stand.—Lexington Leader.

Of 36 big sugar plantations in Louisiana 24 are in the hands of receivers and 12 in the hands of sheriffs. Practically every sugar beet factory in the country is closed and stands a silent monument to Democratic incompetency.

And Mexico's ex-presidents know how to take care of themselves.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE.

Gladys Spink's Profession.

She got them one by one.

To add to her collection.

And whether cheap or fine.

She offered no objection.

She was indeed a bear. He tried to flirt, but she would have none of it. Demurely, with eyes straight ahead, she tripped along in her decidedly well-fitting Zeppelin gown, as though unconscious of his presence on the earth. Suddenly a brilliant thought struck him so hard that he reeled. Darting into a handkerchief store, he bought the best lady's handkerchief in the place. It cost him $1.45, though no one would have guessed from the size of the thing.

A block further on he overtook her. "Pardon me," he said sweetly, "but you dropped your handkerchief. This one."

After a lightning glance, her eyes lighted up thank fully, and she took it from him.

"Oh, so I did!" she cried. "I thank you ever so much! So I did!"

And, thrusting the dollar-forty-nine-cents' worth into her party box, she walked away so rapidly that he merely said, "Nice weather," and gave up the chase.

Just before supper, in her own handkerchief store, she turned her party box upside down, and counted the contents—twenty-six handkerchiefs, all brand new and most of them quite expensive.

"A good day!" she giggled.—Louisville Times.

LEXINGTON HERALD PLACES MAILING LIST ON CASH BASIS.

Rate of $5 Per Year Again Offered If Paid By January 15, 1915—This Offer Is Open Alike To Old and New Subscribers.

On September 15 the Lexington Herald announced that from that date its mailing list would be conducted on a strictly cash in advance basis, all subscribers being discontinued on the first and fifteenth of each month who were not paid in advance. This practice was adhered to from that date, but on the 15th of December it was decided by the Herald to continue all subscribers whose subscriptions expired between that date and the 15th of January to the last named date, thus giving ample time for all who have been in the habit of paying on the first of the year to do so before the expiration date. They also offer the rate of $5 to all of those subscribers who will pay the full year in advance before January 15.

A daily newspaper was never a more welcome visitor to a home than it has been for months past and as it will be for months to come. The great war of Europe seems just in its beginning, while trouble seems again brewing on the Mexican border. The markets, on account of the unsettled conditions abroad and at home, continue to vary constantly and a daily newspaper is an absolute necessity to the farmer for his protection.

A DAILY LESSON IN HISTORY.

One Hundred Years Ago Today.

1814—General Jackson repulsed an advance of the British at Chalmette Plantation, on the Mississippi river, a few miles below New Orleans.

Forty-Five Years Ago Today.

1869—The town of Santa Mauro, on one of the Ionian Isles, was destroyed by an earthquake.

Forty Years Ago Today.

1874—Gerritt Smith, a noted anti-slavery and prohibition advocate, who, after the war, joined with Horace Greeley and Cornelius Vanderbilt in signing the bill bond of Jefferson Davis, died in New York. Born in Utica, N. Y., March 6, 1797.

Thirty-Five Years Ago Today.

1879—The Tay bridge at Dundee, Scotland, the longest girder bridge in the world, was partly destroyed by a gale while a train was passing over it; nearly 100 lives were lost.

Twenty-Five Years Ago Today.

1889—King Carlos of Portugal was enthroned.

Twenty Years Ago Today.

1894—James G. Fair, Bonanza millionaire, and former United States Senator, died in San Francisco. Born in Belfast, Ireland, December 3, 1831.

EX-SENATOR CHANDLER NEARS FOUR SCORE.

Concord, N. H., December 28.—William E. Chandler, who was Secretary of the Navy in President Arthur's cabinet and for many years one of the Republican leaders in the Senate, entered upon his eightieth year today. Mr. Chandler is in the enjoyment of good health and continues active in the practice of law.

STRAIGHTFORWARD TESTIMONY

Many Maysville Citizens Have Profited By It.

If you have backache, urinary troubles, days of dizziness, headaches or nervousness, strike at the seat of the trouble. These are often the symptoms of weak kidneys and there is grave danger in delay. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney ailments — are endorsed by over 30,000 people. Your neighbors recommend this remedy—have proved its merit in many tests, Maysville readers should take fresh courage in the straightforward testimony of a Maysville citizen.

Henry Gallenstein, blacksmith, Poplar St., Maysville, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are the best of kidney remedies. I have used different kinds and no other has ever equalled this one. When my kidneys were out of order and I had pain in my back, I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and used them. They stopped the pains and my kidneys became strong. The cure has been permanent."
